

Name _____

You Don't Say!

Narrative writing, using narrative techniques (W.4.3b; W.4.4; W.5.3b; W.5.4)

Using the narrative you have planned, jot descriptive details, actions, and dialogue about how the characters act about and react to the problem.

Hint: Write dialogue so it sounds like people do when they actually talk. Don't make their speech sound too formal and don't make it so long your reader loses interest.

Great writing deserves to be published in a classroom. Visit studenttreasures.com.

	Discovering and Dealing With the Problem	Solving the Problem
Descriptive Details
Things the Characters Might Do
Things the Characters Might Say		